HOME RULE

Passes House of Commons and Ireland Again Becomes a Nation.

Regains Her Parliament After a Struggle Lasting Over a Century.

William O'Brien and His Followers Abstained From

STATEMENT ISSUED BY REDMOND

By a vote of 351 to 274-a majority of seventy-seven — the House of Commons passed the homo ruio bill. Under the provisions of the Parliament act the bill becomes law after thie stage, as it had already twice passed through all its stages in the House of Commons in two separate sessions, and the veto of the House of Lords therefore has no further effect. When the hill was sent up to the liouse of Lords it was accompanied by a group of jubilsnt Nationalists, who escorted the official bearer of the bill and sang "God Save Ireland." The House of Lords afterward formally read the bill first time.

Tho end of the hard fought struggle came suddenly, the Unionists re-fusing to debate the bill without further information as to the Government's inteatlons in regard to the proposed amending measure. Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, intimated an appeal to the country was not far off and added: "Let the curtain ring down on this contemptible farce. It is only the end of an act and not of the play. The Govern-ment can carry the bill through Parliament, but the concluding act of the drama wili be in the country, where an sppeal to the people will not end in a farce."

Premier Asquith defended the Government against the charge of ignoring the rights of the minority and explained that he was introduclng an amending bili not because he thought that the Irish home rule measure was bad or imperfect, but because he was anxlous for peace. The vote was then taken and the nnnonneeemnt of the figures brought out a great demonstration by the Nationalists and the Liberals. They rose from their seats, cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs. The division was taken strictly on party division was taken strictly on party lines, The followers of William O'Brien abstained from voting, O'Brien expressing the view that "the Premier's action was not straight dealing either with England

John E. Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader, in a stateemnt say the division in the llouse of Comthe home rule bill into law, and expresses the earnest hope that the nervous as to their position, will ahandon unreasonable demands and enter into n conciliatory discussion with their fellow countrymen with regard to the points of the bill upon ley desire further aafe-Today's division," snys which they guards. Redmond, "marks the death after an Ingiorious history of the 114 years of the union of Pitt and Castlereagh. Its place is to be taken by a ne union founded on mutual respect and good will between the two islands. Proceeding the Nationalist leader de ciares that only two eventualities hoth of them impossible, could prevent the bill from becoming statute within a fow weeks-the firet, that the Parilamentary aession should come to an abrupt end; the second, that the House of Commons should suddenly go mad and decide not to submit the bili for royal assent-hoth as absurd contingencie as the suggestion that the Klng would withhold his assent.

Mr. Redmond continues: "I eay or that we desire their co-operation and friendship, and I appeal to them to join hands with us in making the home rule settlement one to insure the prosperity and freedom of ali classes in the country."

Concerning the amending bill, Redmond says: "If it contains the torme of an agreement whereby some of our fellow countrymen in the ericksburg" will be recited. nervous about the future, will conciliated and does not outrage the fundamental principles of the home rule settlement I am convinced that every Nationalist ln Ireland will rejoice. If the amending hill does not contain auch an agreement I see no house, 1818 Portland avonue, the prospect of it hecoming a law. In ny case, failing an agreement, Irish party have made it plain that their hands are free to deal with any proposals that may he made. The great thing for us to remember is that, amending bill or no amending bill, home rule is now practically an act of Parllament.

been passed, public interest has shifted and concentrated on Ulster province. The hig question of the nour is: "What will Ulster do now that the home rule blii haa been enacted without any amendment guaranteeing the exclusion of Uister Carson, Capt. James Craig and other leaders of the anti-home rule Orangemen put into execution the threats they have made and reiterated during the last few months, passing of the bill not causing trou-ble anywhere. The predictions made so freely by certain Unionists that its final sdoption by the House of Commons would be followed by fierce outbursts in Ulster and flerce outbursts in Uister and sanguinary conflicts between the Orangemen and Nationalists have Orangemen failed thus fer. The authorities, civil and military, are keeping a careful watch and trains are held at stations with steam up in readiness to rush troops or armed police wherever they might be needed to suppress riots, which nearly everybody thought were hound to occur. Meanwhile, many Unionists declare that it is only the storm which presages a fierce storm, and that, failing the defeat of the Government at a erai election, civil war looms ahead as a certainty. A curious feature of the situation is that the Unionist lesders are now claiming that the Ulster volunteere are preserving peace in Ulster.

MOURN HER DEATH.

It is with deep regret that the Kentucky irish American reports the death of Miss Annio O'Donaghue, aged tbirty-seven, niece of the Right Denis O'Donaghue, Bishop of Louisville. Miss O'Donaghue was stricken with pulmonary trouble ten their education in the seminaries of weeks sgo and was taken to Sts. the United States and Europe will Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, where she passed pencefully away on Friday priesthood. The Pontiff was surrounded by all the members of the Sacred College living in Rome and by those who are now there, including Cardinals Gibbons, Farley and O'Conneil. The Pope appointed Cardinal Francis Delia Volpe to the office of Chamberiain, in which position he will direct the affairs of the church during the conclave. Cardinal Dioniede Fniconio, formerly Apostolic Dele-gate to the United States, also was raised to the mark of Chamberlain. The allocution of the Pope was a strong appeal for political social peace through restoration religion and the influence of the church. Immediately after the clusion of the secret consistory the Pontiff visited each of the new Csr. dinals and handed him his formal notice of appointment, Cardinai Gasquet, the English

CANDIDATES FOR CIRCUIT CLERK

A new angle was given to the mixup in the United States Senntoriai race when Gen. Bennett H. Young announced Thursday that be would be a candidate in the August primary for the short term, caused by the death of Senator Bradley, and if nominated and elected would serve from the election in November uatii March, 1915, while the appolates of Gov. McCreary will also have a four months' term, the ap-pointment to be made in the next several days and to serve from June until the November election. It has been suggested that the Governor could simplify the situation by ap-pointing Gen. Young for the first four months, and it is believed that thie will be done if Johnson Camden refuses the appointment, which bas been tendered bim by the Governor. Then again if Mr. Camden accepts the appointment hard siedding is in sight for the Beckham candidacy for the long term, as a combination of McCreary for the long term and Camden for the short term would be hard to beat, as the Camden bank roli and influence would make sbort shrift of the Haley mothods, which consist of hypocritical efforts to achieve success through the espousal of the prohibition cause. In the event that Camden does not offer the combination of Gov. McCreary and Gen. Young will have the united support of the old Confederates, who are a strong factor in Democratic circles. It is the helief generally that the Beckham hoom is waning, especially since the death of John C. C. Mayo, who was expected to furnish the sinews of war for the Beckhan canse, and that all is not so rosy as claimed by the Evening P evidenced from the following in tho Shelby Record:

There are "wheels within wheels" and the persistency with which the Louisville Post and Herald, the Harrodsburg Leader and other Republiit will take high rank among the can newspapers are interesting city's many splendid structures, and themselves, and advocating Mr. Beckham for the Democratic nomination for Senntor, is "a little bit suspicions. POWERS Granted Irlsh Parliament by Provisions of the Home Rule Bill.

Senate Will Have Forty Members and House of Commons 164.

Appeal From the Courts in Ireland to House of Lords Aholished.

MUST MEET ONCE EACH YEAR

The home rule bill provides for an rish Senate of forty members and 164 an Irish House of Commons of members. Forty-two members will be sent by Ireland to the House of Commons of the United Kingdom. The Irish .Parliament msy not legislate on pence nor war, on any nnval or military matter, on foreign relationa or trade with places out of treland, coinage or legal tender, or postal services, and may not preference or privilege on account of religious belief.

Temporary reatrictions are placed on legislation concerning land pur-chase, old age pensions, national insurnnce, labor exchangea, the royal lrish constabulary, postai and other savings banks and friendly societies.

The executive power remains vested in the King and his repre-sentative, the Lord Lieutenant. While the supreme power of the mperial l'arliament remains unaffected, the new Irish Parliament is given the power to make laws for the peace and order and good gov-ernment of the country. The House Commons is given special rights in tax matters.

The bill specifically exempts the Embalmer following matters from the authority of the Irish Parliament: The crown. or its succession; the making of peace or war; the navy, the army, or the defense of the realm; treatles or foreign relations; dignities or itles; treason, allenage or usturaliention; trade with any pisce out of ireland, except as it affects the powers of taxation of Parliament; postal services and rates; coinage legsi tender, weights and measures; rade marks, copyrights and pat ents: customs duties unless slready levied by imperial act.

The rate of the income tax nis) not be varied. Establishment, prohibition or free exercise, or privilege of any religion. If a resolution is passed by both houses of the Irish Parliament the following reserved services may be transferred to Ireland after years: All public service connected with the old sge pensions act; services connected with the national insurance act; services connected with the labor exchanges act; services connected with Postoffice savings banka, trustee savings banks and friendly societies.

The forty Senators will be choses from the four provinces and seconding to the principle of proportional representation. In a constituency which returns three or more mem-bers to the House of Commons the election shall also be held on the proportional principle. Both Sen-ators and members of the house are chosen for five year terms.

Bills appropriating revenue or money, or imposing taxstion, shall originate only in the Irish House of Commons. The Lord Lieutenant is authorized to recommend auch legislstion to the house. The Senate may not reject any bill which deals only with taxation or appropriations of money, and may not amend such a bill as to increase any burden on the people. If the two houses of Parliament fail to agree on any bill the Lord Lleutenant may convene a joint sitting of the two houses. The powers, privileges and lanunities of members of the Irish Parliament shall be the same those of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom.

MISSION

Where Confirmation Was First Administered in Empire State.

Occupied Site on Which the City of Ogdensburg Now Stands.

Famous Sulpician Father Who Had Great Influence Over Indians,

ENGLISH SET PRICE ON HIS HEAD

By James A. Rooney.

In connection with the early his tory of the church in the State of New York It is interesting to note that the sacrament of confirmation was administered for the first time within its borders at the Mission of the Presentation by the Right Rev. llenri Marie Doubreuil de Portbriand, Bishop of Quehec, in 1752, one hundred and sixty-two years

This mission was founded by the Rev. Father Francols Picquet, famous Sulpician missionary, on June 1, 1749, as noted in our Catholic chronology, and it occupied the site of the present city of Ogdensburg, now the episcopal see of a diocese with a Catholic population of about 100,000. The cornerstone of Father Picquet's modest mission chapel is still to be seen at Ogdensburg inserted in the wall over the door of the city arsenal, and it bears the following inscription:

In Nomine Dei Omnipotentis Huic Habitational Initia Dedit Frans Piquet, 1749.

Father Picquet had a remarkable career among the Indians. Born ia France, he became a Suipicisn and was ordained April 10, 1734, and he st once set out for Canada in the French man-of-war Ruby, having for his fellow passengers the Right Rev. Pierre Herman Dosquet, the fourth Bishop of Quebec, and a young Jes-ult, Fnther Jean Pierre Aulneau de la Touche, who was afterward murdered by the Sioux. Arriving at Montreal in July he spent the first fifteen years of his missionary life among the Canadian Indians and becsare such a master of their language that he surpassed their ablest orators and won large numbers of them to the faith.

In 1749 he volunteered to establish the Mission of the l'resentation and with that as his headquarters he labored among the neighboring tribes for the following eleven years. He built s chapel and his JOHN E. mission became Fort Presentation. in it he gathered about 3,000 converted Indians and 132 of them were confirmed by Bishop Portbriand, the last French Bishop of Quebec, in

In the wars between the French and the English he led his Indians against the latter, whom he looked upon as much the enemies of the church as of France, and for six years he accompanied them on their mnrches and was with them in their battles, and he was so beloved by hem and his influence was so grea that the French Governor Duquesne said that Abbe Picquet was as good as several regiments. On the defeat of Montcalm on the plains of Abrahsm the English set a price upon his head and he retired to Acadia, escaping thence to France by wsy of New Orlesns. There he exer-cised his ministry in Paris and la his nstive city of Bourg, where he was made Canon of the Cathedral, which position he held uatil his death at the age of seventy-three years, in 1781.-Copyrighted.

UPHOLDS LAW FOR WOMEN.

The Supreme Court of the United Executive Committee—F. G. Adams, George Simonis, Frank Geiler, W. A. Link.

Executive Committee—F. G. Adams, George Simonis, Frank Geiler, Wassachusetts to ilmit the hours of work for women to ten a day, under the reserved police powers of the State. The theory that the individual'a right to contract could be extended to a denial of the State's right to protect the health and strength of its women and children was one that avarice nourished and resson and humanity abhorred.

MORE MEAT.

Although the gross nrea of our astional forests at the beginning of 1914 is almost a million acres less for grazing purposes than at the beginning of 1914, figures just made public by the Secretary of Agriculture show that for the current year there will be an increase of about 38,000 more cattle and horses and 347,000 more sheep and goats.

VOTERS IN IRELAND.

The number of voters la Ireland thia year is 698,098, a decrease of 3,522 as compared with 1913. What the Club Plan Is And What It Means to You simply for the convenience of our patrons who wish to buy Household Goods, such as Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, etc.

When you join the Club Plan you are asked to pay 3 per cent of the amount of your purchases for joining; for instance

The membership fee on a $25.00 purchase would be $1.50.

The membership fee on greater purchases would of course be in proportion.

you are then asked to pay 10 per cent. of your total purchase as the first payment. For instance, on a $25.00 purchase you pay $2.50 down in addition to the membership fee, making a total of $3.25. The goods are then delivered to you and you arrange to pay the balance in small weekly or monthly payments.

When you consider that goods bought on the Club Plan are purchased at our cash prices-whether special or regular-you will more clearly see that our membership fee is nothing in comparison with the additional cost installment houses place on their goods for the privilege of time payments

FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, HOUSE FURNISHINGS AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD GOODS ARE SOLD ON THE CLUB PLAN.

Many of the Sisters are using Pastor Koeniga Nerve Tonio. I tried one bottle for nervousness and sleeplessness, and noticed not alone a marked improvement in my sleep, but falt much better since, therefore recommend the Tonic most highly to all those suffering similarly.

Br. M. Alsocque.
Helen G. McLaughlin, of Overly, N. Dak., says that Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonio is certainly an excellent Norve Tonio, because she was badly run down from nervousness and sleeplessness, but after taking the Tonio her nerves became etronger and she sleet well.

Rev. Joa. Riley, of Saymour, Ind., says he took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonio for sleeplessness, of which he suffered since it years. Since then he sleeps good and recommends the Tonic to all needing it for that purpose.

DOUBLE HEADER TODAY.

Louisville and their old time rivals, the Indianapolis club, nieet again this afternoon in the first double-header of the season on account of the hollday, the first game being called at 1:30 o'clock. A single game tomorrow will close the series. Next Monday and Tueaday the Colonels will play Cleveland here, these games being transferred n account of a conflict in dates with the American League, but the other two games of the series will be played in Cleveland, these being the first of the club's long swing away from home, not returning to Eclipse Park until June 30. To the great disappointment of the fans the showthe past week, have stirred the interest of the many patrons of that popular hesort, who find here an idea spot to spent both the afternoon and evening in real comfort, with a clear view of the beautifui scenery up and down the Ohio. The dancing hall has already won special favor, the piessing music under the direction of Prof. Shane contributing largely to its popularity. Another the players from a hitting and fielding standpoint are second to none.
The fans to a man are hearty supporters of Owner Wathen and his ilberal policy, but do not believe the tesm is putting forth their best efforts through some unknown cause.
Councilman Thomas Dolan will introduce a resolution at the meeting of the General Council Tuesday night to pave "Baseball ailey" with
